

Appalachian Clogging BASIC CLASS

Mondays

7:15 – 8:15 pm

Class starts April 5, 2010
in Campbell

Learn a bit of America's dance heritage. Clogging originated with the settlers in the Southern Appalachian Mountains. Today it is a lively, percussive dance done to bluegrass, country, pop and other styles of music.

12 Week Course

$30/month or $80/all 3 months

No charge your first night.

Come on out and try it!

T and Company Dance Studio

2360 So. Bascom Ave., Ste. F, Campbell, CA

- No experience needed.
- Continue classes after the basic class.
- No special shoes or clothes needed.
- Adults, kids, singles, couples, families.
Under 12 should be accompanied by an adult.
- Wood floor! *Please be sure soles are clean before entering studio.

Class is taught by

Lois Elling

33 years of teaching in the Bay Area

• • • For more information • • •

Lois Elling • (510) 278-8621 • Lois.Elling@pacbell.net

Deann Norris • (408) 745-7896

www.riverboat.com/Clog/BHC.html