

Appalachian Clogging BASIC CLASS

Mondays

7:20 – 8:15 pm

Class starts April 6, 2009
in San Jose, CA

Learn a bit of America's dance heritage. Clogging originated with the settlers in the Southern Appalachian Mountains. Today it is a lively, percussive dance done to bluegrass, country, pop and other styles of music.

12 Week Course

$30/month or $80/all 3 months

No charge your first night.

Come on out and try it!

AKA Dance Studio

4428 Pearl Ave., San Jose (near Branham)

- No experience needed.
- Continue classes after the basic class.
- No special shoes or clothes needed.
- Adults, kids, singles, couples, families.
Under 12 should be accompanied by an adult.
- Wear comfortable clothes and hard-soled shoes.

Class is taught by

Lois Elling

32 years of teaching in the Bay Area

• • • For more information • • •

Lois Elling • (510) 278-8621 • Lois.Elling@pacbell.net

Deann Norris • (408) 745-7896

www.riverboat.com/Clog/BHC.html