Circle Left. I was born in Kentucky, and raised in Tennessee.

The daughter of a trucker from a truckin' family.

Boys Star Right, once inside the ring.

'Cause I'm a free truckin' woman.

Clear blue skies in my eyes, Promenade to see.

I'm a free truckin' woman. ['Cause] truckin' really comes along with me.

Figure:

Heads (Sides) Promenade go Half way around that ring.

Down the middle Pass the Ocean, then Extend.

Swing Thru come two by two, Spin the Top my friends.

Boys move up, and Right & Left Thru, turn a girl you see.

Half Sashay, Box the Gnat.

Pass the Ocean, Boys Run and Promenade.

I'm a free truckin' woman. ['Cause] truckin' really comes along with me.

Middle Break:

Circle Left. On the way down to Texas there's a highway café.

The door is always open any hour of night or day.

Boys Star by the Right, are sure a sight to see.

'Cause I'm a free truckin' woman.

Clear blue skies in my eyes, Promenade to see.

I'm a free truckin' woman. ['Cause] truckin' really comes along with me.

Closer:

Sides Face, Grand Square.

This way of life is really fine and the workin' can be fun.

But the wheels of life keep rollin' on; some day my time will come.

And I'll settle down somewhere beside that highway run.

So I can watch those liners rollin' towards the evening sun.

Four Boys Promenade inside.

Get back home and Dosado your partner (and) Promenade.

I'm a free truckin' woman. ['Cause] truckin' really comes along with me.

Tag: Yeah, truckin' really comes along with me.
