

CALLED BY:

Tony Oxendine

2640 Goldeneye Ridge

Sumter, SC 29150-1100

Phone: 803-469-0495

RIVERBOAT RECORDS

RIVCD - 256

ELUSIVE BUTTERFLY

- OPENER Circle left. You might wake up one morning
To the sound of something moving past your window in the wind.
The men star by the right and turn it one time.
Left allemande that corner and a right & left grand.
Don't be concerned, it will not harm you.
Swing the girl and promenade go moving 'round the ring.
Across my dreams, with nets of wonder
I chased the bright elusive butterfly of love.
- FIGURE The heads [sides] promenade half way around, now.
Lead right, veer left, couples circulate.
Bend the line and all join hands, circle left.
Allemande left and right & left grand.
Don't be concerned, it will not harm you.
Swing the partner there and promenade the ring.
Across my dreams, with nets of wonder.
I chased the bright elusive butterfly of love.
- BREAK Circle left. You might have heard my footsteps
Echo softly in the distance through the canyons of your mind.
Men star right and turn it one time.
Left allemande the corner, weave the line.
Don't be concerned, it will not harm you.
Swing the girl and promenade go moving 'round the ring.
Across my dreams, with nets of wonder
I chased the bright elusive butterfly of love.
- CLOSER Circle left. You might have seen me running Through the long abandoned ruins of the dreams you left behind.
The men star by the right and turn it one time.
Left allemande that corner and a right & left grand.
Don't be concerned, it will not harm you.
Swing the girl and promenade go moving 'round the ring.
Across my dreams, with nets of wonder
I chased the bright elusive butterfly of love.
Swing her. I chased the bright elusive butterfly of love.